Best inspirational and practical approach to energize a company's creative talent that I have read By Mark S Zikakis Josh Linkner is an incredibly creative thinker. He has an amazing ability to help company's unleash their creative talent. After reading Disciplined Dreaming I contacted Josh and engaged him to speak at two company events. Our group walked away energized with new skills that were immediately put into practice. Josh has given us very practical tools, like role storming, that we have used on numerous occasions to fire up creative approaches to business issues that we are facing. I'd rank Disciplined Dreaming as one of the top 5 business resources that I have encountered in my 30 year business career. I've pre ordered 50 copies of Josh's newest book for our team.

The concept is good, but the examples are solely based around the author's company. I wish he had used wider examples in his data and narratives to support what is an excellent premise and series of exercises to implement.
