Cyril Robinson : Marching with Dr. King: Ralph Helstein and the United Packinghouse Workers of America before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Marching with Dr. King: Ralph Helstein and the United Packinghouse Workers of America:

This book shows how a Jewish lawyer utilized his philosophy of prophetic Judaism (a belief in social justice) and his training as a lawyer to become the head of a trade union that formulated policies embodying these social beliefs, bringing many benefits to its members. • Presents information based largely upon original interviews conducted by the author, the research of historians, and original documents from the UPWA archives • Provides a chronological history of the union movement through Helstein's lifetime from the 1920s to the 1980s • Includes family photographs and photos of Helstein in various union activity settings such as strikes and meetings

About the Author Cyril Robinson is a lawyer and emeritus professor of criminal justice at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, IL.
