From JAI Press : Research in Accounting Regulation: Vol. 19 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Research in Accounting Regulation: Vol. 19:

The scope of service provided by professional accountants is influenced by legislation and case law as well as the dictates of a variety of government and private sector agencies; including State Boards of Accountancy, Academic Accreditation Bodies, the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, the Public Accounting Oversight

Board, independent standard setting bodies such as the Federal Accounting Standards Advisory Board [US], the Financial Accounting Standards Board [US] and the International Accounting Standards Board. These entities and self-regulatory organizations such as U.S. State Societies of CPAs and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and equivalent and emerging national bodies that exist in most developed and developing countries, are among the emerging entities which attempt to coordinate the activities of professional accountants among sovereign nations. It is important for academics, students, practitioners, regulators and researchers to consider and study the role and relationship of such bodies with the practice and content of our discipline. Main feature examines developments in accounting regulation Papers provide an international perspective on accounting and finance issues Volume 19 contains main papers, research reports, a feature, capsule commentary, perspectives, and book reviews
